BASKETBALL AND NETBALL TEAMS

All teams have been training hard. The Year 5/6 Basketball team plays their first game this afternoon at the YMCA. All other teams play their first games next week.

We wish all our players an enjoyable season as they represent our school and look forward to celebrating their growth and achievements. We also remind parents and caregivers to ensure positive support and encouragement is provided at all times toward players, coaches and officials.

SUBSIDY FOR GLASSES AND VISION TESTS

Does your child need glasses? If you have a current Community Services Card or High Use Health Card, you may be eligible for the Enable subsidy. For more information you can phone Enable New Zealand 0800 ENABLER (362 253) or talk to an optometrist.

Please ensure forms and payment is promptly returned to the office.

THANKS KIDSCAN

KidsCan have been providing FREE Warriors jackets for our new students for the past six years. The majority of our five year olds were given their jackets earlier in the week and most of our new students in the senior school also received a jacket. We are awaiting another delivery of small jackets to be able to distribute to the remaining new children.

I like the warriors jacket and I like wearing my jacket when it is cold and wet in winter.

*Thank you KidsCan.

DOMINOS DOUGH FUNDRAISER

On Wednesday 25th May, Domino's Davies Corner will donate to our school $1.00 for every pizza sold between 5pm and 8pm.

All you need to do is order a pizza directly from Dominos on this day during 5pm -8pm however YOU MUST MENTION FAIRFIELD PRIMARY SCHOOL when you place your order.

Congratulations to Whaea Candy.

Whaea Candy is this years recipient of the Duffy Mothers Day "Caught being a great mum" award.

During Term 1, there was a school wide competition to encourage classes to dispose of their milk cartons in the correct manner.

Well done to Rooms 16, 17 and 18 for being the "BEST".

These classes enjoyed hot chips for lunch in recognition of their efforts.
